The Punta Cormorán urbanization, located on the shores of the Mediterranean in the area known as «Veneziola», has large common areas where you can find beautiful community pools, central squares and rest areas and direct access to the sea. In the area, in addition, it will have all the necessary services to spend a few days off: public transport stops, supermarkets, pharmacies and various restaurants. The house, located on the fourth floor, is oriented to the Mediterranean. It has a spacious and bright living room with access to a terrace ...
