Recently built property on the first line of the Channel of Veneziaola. Modern design with high quality materials and excellent layout. We access to the house through the garden, where we have an porch area just for the car. On the ground floor we have a very wide living room with fire place and marble floors, from where we can go to the swimming pool through a large window. The kitchen is independent and equipped with all kind of appliances. On this same floor we can also find a bedroom ...
