At the northernmost point of La Manga del Mar Menor, in one of the quietest and most natural areas of the Murcian coastline, lies this unique property, located in the well-known and well-maintained Aldeas de Taray Club urbanization. A privileged setting between two seas, where palm trees, gardens, and white Andalusian-style architecture blend harmoniously with the blue sky and the Mediterranean. This second-floor property has been completely redesigned and reconfigured, resulting in a modern, functional home full of character. It is accessed through a pleasant entrance terrace—an outdoor private area ...
